LILLE
a city of Art, Culture, and Histor

Big City Advantage

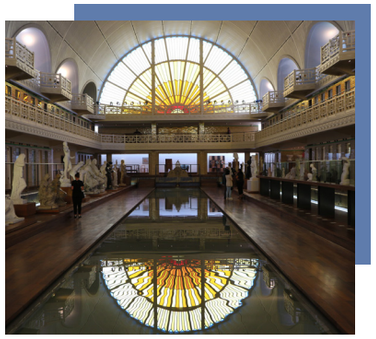
Small City Atmosphere

A city of History

Founded in 1066 by the Count of Flanders, Lille – Rijsel in Flemish – became an important trading and stock market point on the route between the rich Flemish towns and the Champagne fairs. As evident from some of its architecture, Lille was successively Flemish, Burgundian, and Spanish before finally becoming French in 1667 under Louis XIV, whose military engineer, Vauban, built Lille's impressive Citadel.

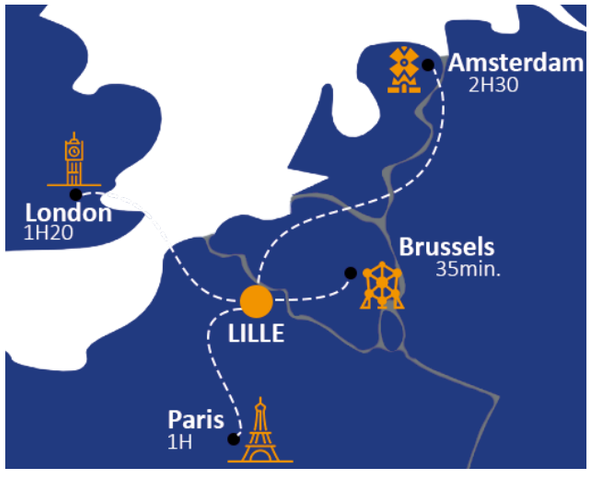
A city of Art

Four world-renowned museums in the region, among the largest in France (Musée des Beaux-Arts, Modern Art Museum, La Piscine de Roubaix, Louvre-Lens).



Most museums are free or have reduced rates for students.

At the crossroads of Europe



Lille's strategic location and the area's rich resources have made it one of the most fought over regions in Europe, a history visible today particularly through the numerous memorials from the last two World Wars in the region, toured by national and international visitors each year.

Lille enjoys all of the conveniences of being at the centre of a 2 million inhabitant urban zone, yet remains a "human-sized" university city with 250,000 inhabitants. Visitors can get around easily on foot or by bicycle. Public transport also offers the metro, the tramway, and many bus lines running frequently and late into the night.

A city of Culture

Lille also boasts a significant number of theatres, music halls, movie theatres, an opera house, and a national orchestra, while the metropolis is home to a large number of cultural events, including the Lille Piano(s) Festival, the International Independent Movie Week, the International Series Festival, a contemporary dance festival and the "Fête de la Musique" on June 21st with free concerts all over town.

The 2nd largest French university center, 43% of its inhabitants are under the age of 30

100 events in Lille every evening, thousands of restaurants and bars in the city

More dynamic than ever

- 2004 — European Capital of Culture
- 2018 — 1st International TV Show Festival «Series Mania»
- 2019 — lille3000 Festival « Eldorado »
- 2020 — LILLE: WORLD DESIGN CAPITAL
